Don't You Know

that you can secure almost immediate relief from Indigestion, and that uncomfortable fullness after meals, by simply taking a dose of Simmons Liver Regulator? Some people think that because it is called Liver Regulator it has nothing to do with Indigestion and the like. It is the inaction of the Liver that causes Indigestion, and that fullness; also Constipation, and those Bilious Headaches. Millions have been made to understand this and have been cured from these troubles by Simmons Liver Regulator—a medicine unfailing and purely vegetable.

From Rev. M. P. Wharton, Baltimore, Md

"It affords me pleasure to add my testimony to the great virtues of Simmons Liver Regulator. I have had experience with it, as occasion demanded, for many years, and regard it as the greatest medicine of the times. So good a medicine deserves universal commendation."

ARE MUSTACHES ORNAMENTS?

A Young Woman Writer Discourses on an Important Part of Man.

Why do young men take such pride in their mustaches? It is, I suppose, because they think a mustache is ornamental. Is it? Why do men have clean shaven lips when they could grow mustaches? And why do men wear half a dozen straggling hairs when they ought to have them shaved off? Why will men continue to spend hours every day in training the hair on their upper lip, when it doesn't make them look any more handsome, when it is annoying to their sweethearts by scratching their cheeks, when it prevents a cigar being smoked more than half through, and when it shows a horrid propensity for getting mixed up with the food?

I don't think mustaches are ornamental. The ideal mustache has yet to be invented. It must not draggle, nor be used as a shield to hide one's bad teeth, nor be fierce. And oh, it must not be waxed or loaded! What do men say of women who use grease? When you are enjoying a spoon don't you think it takes all the romance out of the thing by having a nasty, unsympathetic piece of hair edge its way against your lips? And isn't it exasperating when your lover lends his mustache and never tells you? You go home with your face like a metropolitan extension map, and feel very uncomfortable when father and mother say there have been a lot of smuts about, for your face has got quite dirty.

No, mustaches are neither useful nor ornamental. Were I a man and capable of growing a most luxuriant mustache I would cut it off. A clean shaven man looks much the nicest. Girls like a beardless face. They are content to know that whiskers and all the rest could be there if they were wanted. You see, a man with a mustache is generally a bit of a fop, and girls don't like fops. If a man doesn't keep it trimmed it gets straggling and ragged; if he does keep it trimmed then he appears conceited. He is eternally twisting it this way, giving it a curl that way, stroking it and patting it, until he loses all character, for manliness.

Now, a clean shaven man seems to be dignified. Women love dignity. Why is it they are always so fond of curates and especially high church—and actors? Simply because they shave. Women want in men a smooth, clear cut face—not with a great bunch of hair stuck out under the nose. Whoever heard of the Greeks having mustaches? Whoever saw a statue of a Greek god with a mustache unless he were an old god and wore a beard as well?

Mustaches are not ornamental, because they rarely suit the face, because they are a protuberance and hide the outline of the mouth, and because, with a mustache, a man is frightened to laugh, as it disarranges it. Only a few women care for them. Men think all women do. That is a mistake.—"A Fair Critic" in London Tit-Bits.

Coming to the Point.

"Papa, what is a conflagration?"

"A great fire, my boy."

"And what name would you give to a small fire then?"

"A small fire? I cannot think just now of any special word. You might call it an incipient fire or a fire of little moment."

"Well, papa, I have just noticed that your top coat was burning at the back, and I was wondering whether it was a conflagration or an incipient fire!"

Pleasantness.

When Music Was In Ill Repute.

The objection of the nonconformist conscience to musical instruments did not stay at organs, but was extended to fiddles and harps. The drum was almost the sole instrument which was not Babylonish and anti-Christian and could be heard with no uncomfortable scruples. Neither did that curious conscience object simply to the use of the harp and the fiddle upon the village green after the common evensong upon Sunday afternoons, but objected to them even upon the week days. To be a harper or fiddler was ipso facto to be a sinner. Any money earned by playing a harp or viol was the "wages of iniquity."—London Saturday Review.

A GOLDEN MEAN TARIFF

The Atlanta Constitution has perhaps more influence in the Southern States than any paper published south of Mason & Dixon's line Its editor, Evan P. Howells, now on a visit to New York, was interviewed in that city on the tariff question. He says the South is full of men, who do not want the extreme of protection nor the extreme of free trade They believe in the golden mean and think it best for the country He was not at the Reform Club banquet in New York, but he read the speeches made there, and if a few of those extreme speeches had been made in the Southern States during the campaign not one State in five, south of Mason & Dixon's line, would have voted for Cleveland

Mr Howells understands the sentiments of the people in the South, and judging by his remarks they are not in favor of free trade The people as a rule, North and South, indicated at the recent election, that they were not particularly in favor of the McKinley bill, which has many objectionable features, but it does not follow that they are in favor of free trade There must necessarily be a high tariff so long as the expenditures of the Government are half a billion dollars a year, unless the system of raising revenue is changed, and direct taxation is substituted for duties on imports

The people, irrespective of party, like fair play in legislation as in everything else It is hardly fair, because of a change in the Administration, to cripple industries, which have been encouraged for years by all parties, by placing their products on the free list without giving them opportunity to prepare for the change No article that has been protected from foreign competition for a series of years should be admitted free of duty for at least two years The silver producing States have been complaining of the injustice of legislation which permits European brokers to fix the price of their principal product

The injustice of ruining industries whose products have been protected to some extent from foreign competition by a tariff, would be as gross and unpardonable as the demonetization of silver It should be the aim of Congress to strike the golden mean, of which Mr. Howells speaks, and deal justly with all In that way it will merit the respect of conservative men of all parties and conduct the Government for the masses instead of the classes

THE NICARAUGUA CANAL.

A determined effort will be made at this session of Congress to get the Government interested in the Nicaragua canal There is a strong lobby to work up the scheme and the promoters hope to succeed under the guise of patriotism The canal company has been organized with a capital stock of $100,000,000 The United States is expected to guarantee the payment of interest on the capital stock in return for which it will be given nominal control of the enterprise One of the plans proposed is to have the United States Government take $80 000,000 of the capital stock and let the promoters have the other $20,000 000 for privileges granted them by the Nicaraguan government

The Atlantic seaboard States and California would alone be benefited by the construction of the Nicaragua canal The interior States have no particular interest in the scheme, as it would not affect freight rates on railroads from the Atlantic and Pacific coasts to points between the Sierra Nevada and Chicago As the Eastern States and California have opposed every effort of the interior States to remonetize silver, all the friends of the debased metal in Congress should combine to prevent the granting of National aid to the Nicaragua canal until silver is remonetized A free coinage bill should be attached as a rider to every measure brought before Congress for subsidizing or in any way pledging the credit of the Government to the canal

Let San Francisco, whose most magnificent buildings were erected with the proceeds of Nevada silver mines, understand that the people of the interior have not forgotten that no member of Congress from that city ever advocated or voted for the passage of a bill to remonetize silver, and that not one dollar of the public funds shall be expended in the construction of the Nicaragua canal until the mines of the United States are opened, as the Act establishing those mints provided they should be, for the free coinage of silver and gold

The prosperity of the agricultural and mining States depends upon righting the wrong of 1873, and the Representatives in Congress from those States should defeat the Nicaragua canal scheme and all other measures designed for the exclusive benefit of the maritime States, until a free coinage bill is placed on the statutes

Matters of Interest From Home and Abroad.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Dec 15.—There was a meeting of the Committee on Ways and Means this morning to consider the resolution of investigation into the financial condition of the Treasury. Some favored investigation by the entire committee, while others believed that results would be expedited by assigning the work to a sub-committee The matter was finally settled by the adoption of the following resolution presented by Wilson of West Virginia

"Resolved, That the inquiry devolved upon this committee by the resolution adopted by the House on the 13th inst. be conducted by a sub-committee, to be composed of five members, consisting of the chairman and four members appointed by him, this committee to be announced by Chairman Springer before the holiday adjournment"

On motion of Turner it was resolved that a resolution be presented to the House providing that the holiday recess should begin after the adjournment of the houses on the 22 instant and continue until January 4th.

The House agreed to the concurrent resolution for a recess from December 22d to January 4th.

A resolution was adopted setting apart to-day after the morning hour for the business called up by the Committee on Indian Affairs.

A bill making it unlawful for any common carrier to insert in any bill of lading a clause to relieve it from liability for loss in the transportation of merchandise committed to its care was passed

The floor was then accorded to the Committee on Indian Affairs

After a discussion on Indian bills and the passage of the bill to ratify the agreement with the Kickapoo Indians, the House adjourned until Saturday.

SENATE.

A very strong presentation in favor of the claimant in the famous McGarrahan case, was made in the Senate to-day by Hunton of Virginia. The chief point made by him was that after hearing before President Lincoln in which both sides were represented by counsel, Lincoln decided in support of the claim and directed the issuance of a patent That patent was afterward filled out and signed, and was afterward before McGarrahan knew of its existence, mutilated in the Land Office of the Interior Department. The morning hour expired before the argument was concluded and the bill went over without action till Monday next in the morning hour.

In the Senate Powers to-day introduced an amendment to the bill defining options and futures adding silver bullion to the other articles mentioned in the bill

A motion that when the Senate adjourns it will be until Monday was opposed by Washburne in the interest of the Anti option bill The vote stood a tie and the Vice President cast his vote in favor of adjournment to the time specified

The Senate again took up the McCarnahan bill, and Hunton continued his argument in favor of the passage of the bill over the President's veto. Hunton had not concluded his argument when the morning hour had expired,

The McCarnahan bill went over until Monday, and the Anti Option bill was taken up, George continuing his speech in favor of it.

At the conclusion of George's speech Washburne attempted but failed to have the time fixed for taking the vote next week to executive session

The Senate adjourned until Monday

The Silver Question in India

LONDON, Dec 15.—A special from Calcutta states that Mackay, President of the India Currency Association, has returned to Calcutta after giving evidence in London before the Herschell Currency Committee. Mackay says if the committee reports against the gold standard the commercial men of India must accept the situation India, he added, would go on with silver as best she could for a few years longer, when further experience with that metal would lead to a change. In the meantime business will be at a low ebb and the ports blocked with unemployed shippings.

In reply to a question of the banks as to what notice would be given if the mints closed, the government states that it can say nothing at present

The Kansas Senatorship

TOPEKA, Dec 15.—Democratic leaders from all parts of the State are here to attend the meeting of the Democratic Central Committee to decide the Senatorial question Numerous candidates are in the field, but Judge Martin seems to have a lead which is hard to overcome It is believed that he can best unite all members of the party.

With the aid of one Democrat the Populists can elect a Senator, and Senator O'Brien, although a straight Democrat, makes it impossible to elect any Democrat other than a fusionist, and the Populist caucus will decide who that fusionist will be.

Death of Senator R L Gibson.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Dec 15.—After a lingering but apparently painless illness Senator R. L. Gibson died at 3 10 P. M. to day, At the time of his death he was surrounded by members of his family and several close friends Senator Gibson passed away as though he had merely fallen asleep In accordance with his wishes the remains will be buried in Lexington, Ky., by the side of his wife.

Denounces Free Masonry.

ROME, Dec. 15.—The Pope will soon send to the Italian bishops a letter denouncing Free Masonry as pursuing a satanic aim and replacing Christianity by naturalism.

Republicans Caucusing.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The Republican Senatorial caucus met again at 10 this morning for further discussion of the program to be followed by the party in regard to the prospective Senatorial contests in the several Western States.

A resolution was offered by Senator Hawley of Connecticut and adopted, authorizing the chairman, Senator Sherman, to appoint a committee of five Senators to take into consideration the wisdom and propriety of Senatorial interference in these contests. The obvious purpose of the resolution is to reflect unpleasantly upon the "pernicious activity" of the Democratic caucus committee in this matter. Further than that nothing was done, except to discuss the general outlook in the west, and the result of this was to greatly encourage the western Senators in as much as it demonstrated that their eastern colleagues were by no means lukewarm in the matter. The caucus adjourned subject to call

The Senators who participated in the discussion were Sanders Perkins, Dubois, Warren Manderson, Paddock, Hoar, Lake, Hawley, Morrill, Garry and Sherman The consensus of opinion expressed was that while the Senators did not desire nor pretend to interfere with the States in carrying out the will of the people, it was the duty of the Republican Senators to resent strenuously the assertions of the Democrats who are now, as they charge, trying to prevent public sentiment It was shown to the satisfaction of the caucus that the Democratic "steering committee" had no ground upon which to stand when it gave out the authorized interview in New York, and in corroboration of this some figures were produced in Nebraska where it was said by the speakers the Democrats had not four members in the entire Legislature and in Kansas but 17 In North Dakota the Republicans had a clear majority of nine in both branches and in Wyoming 5 In California and Montana the vote was close with the Populists holding the balance of power Senator Morrill made a strong speech in which he deprecated the assertions made by Democrats and urged the Republicans to do whatever might be necessary to make plain the fact that such assertions were based upon assumptions of the most violent character and insulting to the integrity and honesty of the Republican party. One of the active members of the caucus said it was not the intention of Republicans to appoint any so called "steering committee" for the reason that the only purpose of such committee could be to exercise improper influence upon legislatures in the States in question

Hill Tendered the Portfolio of State.

ALBANY, N Y Dec 15 —The Times-Union to night, under a Washington date, says that United States Senator Hill has been tendered the portfolio of State by President-elect Cleveland. This is following the custom to give to their leading opponent the portfolio Senator Hill was approached while in New York by a close friend of Cleveland and the result is that Cleveland and Hill met in Baltimore later on where all differences were healed and Cleveland in person tendered Hill the portfolio of State. This would result in the following changes in the New York State Government Flower and Hon Edward Murphy, Jr, will both be sent to the U S Senate, placing Lieutenant Governor Sheehan in the Governor's chair

The Monetary Conference

BRUSSELS, Dec 15 —The committee appointed by the International Monetary Conference to consider the various projects submitted to the conference a report in which they state that in considering the various proposals submitted to them they confined themselves to the study of general principles and did not discuss the details necessary to give the several proposals effect

After reviewing the reasons for and against the different plans the report concludes "Having regard for the fact that the conference has not pronounced on the general question the committee do not feel satisfied in taking a vote upon the projects referred to them, or attempting to formulate a compromise between the varying monetary doctrines advanced

There was an unusually large number of new beginners and those lacking practice at the rink last evening, and consequently much amusement was afforded spectators. Dr. Fredrick, Al Helmold, Sam Mozingo and a number of others left their imprint on the rink floor, and will probably find it more comfortable standing up than sitting down for the next few days.

RAILWAY MILEAGE.

Some Interesting Figures Gleaned From the Latest Bulletin Issued by the Census Department.

The thanks of the JOURNAL are due Frank H. Norcross for bulletin No. 24 lately issued by the Census Department in relation to the railway mileage of the world. The bulletin itself contains a number of excellent maps and diagrams representing objectively the comparative length of the railroads of the different countries.

North America, among the continents, leads with 182,937 miles, followed by Europe with 136 855 miles, Asia with 18,798 miles, Australia with 11,139, and Africa with 3,992 miles.

Of all countries the United States is immeasurably in the lead with 163,597 miles, followed by Germany with 25,969 miles, France with 22 586, Great Britain and Ireland with 19,939, Russia with 18,728, Austria with 16,167, British India with 15,837, Canada with 13,323, Italy with 8,117, Spain 6 127, Mexico 5,344, Brazil 5,129. Japan has only 907 miles, and China but 124 miles. The United States has therefore 44 per cent of the total 380,281 miles of railroad in the world.

In proportion to the number of square miles of territory Belgium leads with 28.33 miles of railroad for every 100 square miles, followed by Great Britain and Ireland with 16 42, while the United States is eleventh in the list, having only 5.51 miles.

In proportion to population for every 10,000 inhabitants, Western Australia is far in the lead with 112 95 miles, followed by Canada with 20.35 miles, with the United States sixth in the list, having 25 90 miles.

In the whole world there averages 1 45 miles of railroad for each 100 square miles of territory, and 3.09 miles for each 10,000 inhabitants.

A PLEASANT GATHERING.

A Reno Wool Grower Takes to Himself a Helpmate.

Wednesday evening a few of the personal friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Winfrey met at their residence east of town, the occasion being the marriage of Henry Anderson, the well-known sheep owner, and Miss Bertina C. Jensen, also of Reno. The marriage ceremony, which was conducted by Justice J. J. Linn, took place about 7:30, after which the party sat down to an elegant repast prepared by Mrs. Winfrey. The bride's cake was the most delicious the reporter ever saw, and the quality of the wine and other condiments were in keeping. The bride, who was elegantly and beautifully attired, looked very sweet, and the glowing countenance of the groom proved the hour to be the happiest of his life. The happy couple took the evening train for San Francisco, intending to be gone about ten days. A. GUEST.

He Got the Bucket.

During the recent fire in Ike Lothrop's house in Wadsworth Hon. W. H. A. Pike, who constituted himself fire commissioner default of any other applicant, in the moment of supreme danger shouted to a young man on top of the burning building to thrown down one of the buckets. The young man obeyed. The bucket hit bottom upwards on Peter Swanson's head with the result that the bottom came out of it, the rim fitted around Swanson's neck like a collar and the bail knocked several square inches of skin off his nose and cheek. Swanson is now in a dilemma trying to decide whether he should have Pike or the man who threw the bucket arrested for assault.

NO POLITICAL REVENGE.

Mr. Nixon's Conservative Views on Politics.

When George Nixon, Chairman of the Silver Party Central Committee, was in Carson on Monday, he was interviewed by the Appeal and expressed himself as follows on the future course of the Silver Party:

"A good many people seem to have an idea that the Silver party proposes to override and cinch everybody who did not vote the Silver ticket. This is not my idea of building up a party. I regard that many men who differed with us were honest in their opinions.

"The campaign was rather warm while it lasted and a good deal of warm talk was indulged in by both sides. Now that the fight is over, I do not believe the leaders of the Silver party wish to exult over their beaten opponents or humiliate them. It is when a party is very largely in the majority that it can afford to be generous. We can occupy our time to pretty good advantage in the next Legislature, by pursuing a steady, conservative course, aiming to enact such laws as will build up and benefit the State at large. The voters who stood by us so nobly in the fight expect such legislation and if they are disappointed it will be a set back to the party.

"Of course, as far as the Silver party can bestow patronage on its members it will do so; that is the usual sequence of victory, but all the leaders I have talked with are opposed to any cinch legislation, or in fact any legislation that simply embodies getting even with somebody without any corresponding good resulting to the taxpayers at large.

"The representatives of the party, in order to perpetuate the power of the party, must make the general public respect it A new party is always watched closer and more unsparingly criticised than an old one, and it therefore behooves the leaders to give this fact due consideration. I believe that the next Legislature will act as real servants of the people, and so conduct themselves that the usual howl of disgust raised after adjournment will not go up. The future success of the party is in their hands."

Mr. Nixon does not allow anyone to give him the slightest credit for his handling of the fight as Chairman of the Central Committee. He said, in speaking of the matter:

"No one man is entitled to any credit for the outcome; the people did the work at the polls, and to them belong the laurels of victory."—Appeal.

The Goldbugs of Europe Alarmed.

The scramble for gold has begun. In the first three days of the present week more than $5,000,000 worth has been engaged for shipment to Europe, and by Saturday it is thought the amount will reach $8,000,000. The indications are that this drain of gold will continue until it is stopped by a general panic, for just so soon as it becomes known to our people that Europe is determined to have our gold there will be a scramble and free fight for it in this country. It will excite the adhesive qualities of the savings banks depositors, and they will make a mad rush with their $1,650,000,000 of certificates of deposit and demand their redemption. The national bank depositors with $1,700,000,000 certificates of deposit will stimulate the rush with their presence and there will be music in the air. The professional goldbug bond holders will also be seized with an insane desire to get their bonds redeemed in gold, and the result will be that several billion dollars worth of securities will be thrown on the market. This will make the situation interesting. The panic will undoubtedly extend to Europe and all her dependencies. The result will be that the goldbug cranks will call in the aid of the great astrologers, clairvoyants and jugglers to assist them in enforcing their demands to make the debtors deliver $150,000,000,000 worth of gold to them. As the total supply is less than $1,000,000 000, it will be seen at a glance that the goldbug cranks will need all the unseen forces in nature to assist them in enforcing their demands. To a person with ordinary perceptive faculties it looks as if there was trouble ahead for the goldbugs.

FARMER.

Minnie Seligman in My Official Wife.

It is predicted that Minnie Seligman Cutting will make one of the strongest hits ever known here when she appears at McKissick's Opera House Tuesday evening in My Official Wife. This is not idle talk, but based upon a record gained in New York by hard work and natural gifts, which carried Miss Seligman to the first place among metropolitan leading ladies. Miss Seligman captured the East and Western cities, and the company which Manager Frank W. Sanger has given her for support is made up of the very best material obtainable.

Swam the Truckee Twice.

"Snowball," the Wadsworth colored professor of boot polishing, during the fire at that place a number of days ago heroically drank several ounces of Wadsworth whisky to settle his nerves. He must have concluded that a conflagration of some character had suddenly developed inside of him for he immediately gave the alarm and plunged into the Truckee river, which he swam twice before he came to himself. He now languishes in the Reno cooler meditating upon the ways that are dark and tricks that are vain.

"Travelers' Tales or the Pitcairn."

There will be a free lecture on the above subject given in the Opera House to-morrow (Saturday) evening, December 17th. Reserved seats can be secured without charge at Pinniger's. The public is cordially invited.

Senator Jones Addresses the Delegates—Sir Guildford Houldsworth Makes Some Pertinent Remarks.

At the International Monetary Conference Sir Guildford Houldsworth, one of the delegates representing the Indian Government, protested against obstructions offered by the British delegates at that and previous conferences. But for the tactics employed by the representatives of Great Britain the currency question would have been settled long ago. Sir Guildford declared the situation in Great Britain had greatly changed since November 23d, the date of the first meeting of the conference, and he suggested the conference adjourn for a few weeks to enable the British Government to reconsider the whole question. He gave as reasons for the change in the situation in Great Britain the statement in favor of bimetallism made by Archbishop Walsh.

SENATOR JONES

Made a long address on bimetallism, reviewing the history of the question at great length. He argued from this history that the increase of silver production had led ever to the revival of industry and commerce. The demonetization of silver caused a disastrous fall in prices throughout the civilized world. The prosperity of every country depended upon stability in the value of its money. Uninterrupted employment of the people could be accomplished only through the instrumentality of time contracts, which often deferred the date of payment many years. Any increase in the value of money on which the terms of contract were based bore down crushingly upon employers, who saw all their foresight thwarted by a subtle, inexplicable power.

Such phenomena were followed by suspension of work and enterprise and enforced idleness upon the part of the laboring classes. Senator Jones then drifted off to the subject of checks, certificates and other substitutes for money. Even when used to the utmost, said he, they could bring no permanent relief to the present situation. They were mere narcotics. Only the remonetization of silver would be an adequate remedy.

Senator Jones was listened to with the closest attention by the conference.

Skating and Dancing.

The usual Saturday night dance in connection with the skating rink will take place Saturday evening. The last one was the most successful thus far given, Mr. Biehin being complimented in his management of the same; and no effort will be spared to make this even more sociable. Skating will begin at the usual hour and continue until 9 o'clock, when those so desirous will adjourn to the upper floor of the Pavilion, where excellent music will be furnished for dancing until 12 o'clock. Those preferring to skate may do so until the usual closing time.

Why Throw Away Money?

What method is there in throwing away money in purchasing clothing, boots, shoes, underwear, shirts, tobacco, cigars, blankets, and in fact numbers of other necessities, when by purchasing them at Russak's auction rooms, two doors north of Coffin & Larcomb's store, you can save from 50 to 75 per cent on every purchase. There are no shoddy auction goods offered, but as fine a stock of gentlemen's wear as can be found anywhere in the State. The prices received at night govern the prices for the succeeding day. Call around and secure bargains.

Stationery, cutlery, notions, also gentlemen's underwear and hats at A. Nelson's on Virginia street. Call and examine before purchasing elsewhere.

FLORISTON NOTES.

The Outlook Good for the Ice Men.

FLORISTON, Cal., December 14.

All the ice ponds are covered with ice from nine inches in thickness upwards. The mercury still ranges from twenty degress above during the heat of the day down to below zero at night. It is the calculation to commence cutting about Monday next if a storm or thaw does not prevail. If, in the meantime, it should commence storming, there will be work for all to keep the ice clear of snow.

Harry Morse of the National Ice Company is at Cuba looking after the interests of his company.

Mrs. S. H. Simonds and Mrs. U. S. Simonds departed for San Francisco to spend the holidays. X.

Deserves Attention.

If you have money to invest in Reno real estate, either in large or small amounts, the Reno Real Estate and Investment Company offers most particular inducements to you. By investing in its shares of stock you participate in its investments which are governed by its able and experienced Board of Trustees, consisting of Mr. C. T. Bender, Mr. Sol Levy, Mr. C. C. Powning, Mr. Geo. F. Turrittin and Mr. A. G. Fletcher. The principle object of the company is to purchase and improve centrally located business property in the city of Reno. Everyone is of one mind as to the desirability of such investments.

The company is incorporated with a capital of $100,000, divided into 20,000 shares of the par value of five dollars each, and from its already large list of share holders there is every reason to believe that it is destined to become one of the most flourishing companies in the State. Of its 20,000 shares there have been 12,000 sold since August 1st.

Its shares are sold upon the monthly instalment plan of ten cents per share, instalments to range over a period of fifty months. In this way persons of moderate means are enabled to combine and participate in investments that usually only fall to the lot of the fortunate capitalist. Mr F. M. Lee, the Secretary of the company, will be pleased to furnish any desired information.

Esmeralda Items

The following news items are taken from the Hawthorne Bulletin:

The force at the Indian Queen mine has been reduced to five men for the Winter.

Parties are contemplating the erection of a packing establishment in Mason Valley.

Telephone communication between here and Bodie cannot be had, as the wires are out of working order.

Tom Callow and James McMasters came down from Bodie Saturday. They report that the snow is fourteen feet deep on the streets of Bodie.

Considerable assessment work is being done on mines hereabouts. Still there are quite a number of men practicing jumping, and they expect to be proficient by the first of January.

Louis Leidy and two other prospectors left Hawthorne on Saturday for White Hills, Arizona. They go in a two-horse wagon well stocked with provisions and prospectors' outfits. The boys will have a rough trip.

Pronunciation of Stage People.

Mr. G. W Dancy complains very bitterly of the disregard by actresses of the value of the vowel sound.

He says that "poitry" (oi dipthong) was the sound recently given to "poetry," and immediately "diary" became "diry," while that pitfall of cockney rhymesters "sure" inevitably delights the expectant ear as "shore." He has also heard "obsurd" given for "absurd," while "ommission" "comission" and "ocur" are frequent rendering of "omission," "commission" and "occur," and "secret" masquerades thinly disguised as "secrit." Elisions and clippings are favorite errors, particularly among rapid speakers. Take as recent illustrations "intimit" for "intimate," "s'port" and "s'pose," for "support" and "suppose."

In the matter of "h's" actors and actresses are commendably sound, and "the very rare lapses in that quarter are invariably due to nervousness."—London Telegraph

A Stone Image Sixty Feet Under Ground.

Years ago probably as early as 1881, when workmen were excavating a cut on the Huntston and Shenandoah railway, they found a stone image about eight inches in height imbedded in the clay at a depth of about sixty feet beneath the surface In general attitude the image may be said to be in a squatting or sitting posture, the right elbow resting upon the bent knee Two horns, each about an inch in length, adorned the head The mouth, and in fact the whole face, was very large for the size of the image The main question is, How long has it been since that image was an object of worship?—St. Louis Republic

Ancient Wire.

Wire is no new thing, specimens of metallic shreds dating as far back as 1700 B C are stated to have been discovered, while a sample of wire made by the Ninevites some 1800 years B C. is exhibited at the Kensington museum in London. Both Homer and Pliny allude to wire.—Chambers' Journal.

The glassmakers of Thebes forty centuries ago possessed the art of staining glass, and they produced the commodity in the utmost profusion.

A Jealous Elephant.

An amusing instance of elephantine pride is told by Baker. The elephant which usually led the state procession of a rajah being sick, the magnificent trappings were placed on one which had up to this time occupied only a subordinate place The animal, delighted with its finery, showed its glee by so many little squeaks and kicks of pleasure that general attention was attracted to it.

Not long after another state procession was formed, and the previous wearer of the gold cloths, being restored to health, took his accustomed place and trappings, when the now degraded beast, imagining perhaps that he was being defrauded of his promotion, was with great difficulty restrained from attacking the leader of the parade —Pearson's Weekly

Talk's cheap, but when it's backed up by a pledge of the hard cash of a financially responsible firm, or company, of world wide reputation for fair and honorable dealing, it means business!

Now, there are scores of sarsaparillas and other blood-purifiers, all cracked up to be the best, purest, most peculiar and wonderful, but bear in mind (for your own sake), there's only one guaranteed blood purifier and remedy for torpid liver and all diseases that come from bad blood.

That one—standing solitary and alone—sold on trial, is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

If it does'nt do good in skin, scalp and scrofulous diseases—and pulmonary consumption is only lung-scrofula—just let its makers know and get your money back.

Talk's cheap, but to back a poor medicine, or a common one, by selling it on trial, as "Golden Medical Discovery" is sold, would bankrupt the largest fortune.

Talk's cheap, but only "Discovery" is guaranteed.

"German Syrup"

Here is an incident from the South —Mississippi, written in April, 1890, just after the Grippe had visited that country. "I am a farmer, one of those who have to rise early and work late. At the beginning of last Winter I was on a trip to the City of Vicksburg, Miss., where I got well drenched in a shower of rain. I went home and was soon after seized with a dry, hacking cough. This grew worse every day, until I had to seek relief. I consulted Dr. Dixon who has since died, and he told me to get a bottle of Boschee's German Syrup. Meantime my cough grew worse and worse and then the Grippe came along and I caught that also very severely. My condition then compelled me to do something. I got two bottles of German Syrup. I began using them, and before taking much of the second bottle, I was entirely clear of the Cough that had hung to me so long, the Grippe, and all its bad effects. I felt tip-top and have felt that way ever since." PETER J. BRIALS, Jr., Cayuga, Hines Co., Miss.

AN AUTUMN MELODY.

What notes of what ditty can sound from the city,
From out of the dust and the din,
Where the sun's pallid taper is dim through the vapor
That shrouds all the sorrow and sir?
At evening I listen—the murky lamps glisten,
The stars peep by two and by three;
The harsh Babel noises replace your sweet voices,
Dear sea!

Yet past the fog curtain, I know it for certain,
The barn roofs have caught the last ray;
The smoke of the threshing is softly enmeshing
Brown gables with delicate gray.
The red leaves are falling, the plovers are calling,
The sea wind is salt o'er the wold,
The bryonies blacken, the tufts of green bracken
Turn gold.

O scents that redouble where slow through the stubble
The plow cleaves a pathway of hope!
O woods fading yellow, and orchards grown mellow,
And flocks on the faraway slope!
O sea songs that mingle on bowlder and shingle,
O fields that of old time I knew!
My heart swells to bursting with infinite thirsting
For you.
